

A Message from
The Judge Advocate General

Announcement of Assignment as Assistant Judge Advocate General for Military Law and Operations (Individual Mobilization Augmentee)

21 April 2006

I am pleased to announce that Colonel Christopher T. Cline has been selected to serve as the next Assistant Judge Advocate General for Military Law and Operations (Individual Mobilization Augmentee), Office of The Judge Advocate General. Colonel Cline will assume his new duties in April 2007, after Brigadier General Scott Castle completes his term of service in this key leadership position.

Colonel Cline is a proven leader with a distinguished record of accomplishment that makes him exceptionally well qualified to assume his new responsibilities. Colonel Cline is currently serving on active duty as the Legal Advisor to the Department of Defense International Criminal Court Task Force. Other key assignments have included service as the Senior Army Assistant to the Staff Judge Advocate of the United States Strategic Command and Commander, 9th Legal Support Organization. He is a 2001 graduate of the Army War College.

The Corps will greatly benefit from his leadership and experience in the years to come.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "SCC Black". The signature is stylized and fluid.

SCOTT C. BLACK
Major General, USA
The Judge Advocate General